Here are our toys,
All covered with dust,
We leave them to the freshmen,
Who'll use them we trust.

Just twelve years ago there were some excited children coming to school for the first time. It seemed like yesterday. There are 10 who completed twelve years of school in Cadiz. These are: Ann Clark, Audrey Bates, Patsy Patterson, Jo Ann Merryman, Raetta Croak, Bill Farms, Bill Finnical, Ronnie Van Curen, Jack Rogers, and Troy Mills. This was quite an exciting year for all of us. We had one boy in our class that liked it under the tables much better than on the chairs! We were in our first operetta. Our poor teacher, Miss Pickering, we will always remember her.

The second grade wasn't quite so exciting as the first. Everything was old to us, by this time. We had a little girl that just couldn't keep from pinching her boyfriend and ended up getting taught a lesson with a stick.

Well, we went on to third. We never realized there was so much arithmetic until we had the multiplication tables, but in the fourth grade multiplying wasn't quit so bad after all. The girls took up the ballet to dance in the operetta. I wonder what happened to all our dancers?

When we were in the fifth grade we really were doing our best to help with the war. We organized the Junior Commandos, boys and girls alike. We trained very hard, fine soldiers were we.

We were departmentalized in the sixth grade because the subjects were getting harder and required specialized teachers. But oh! no recess, we had to learn to be grown ups, you know. We made up for it by having many parties. Our teacher had a Valentines and Christmas party for us. We had ice cream and cookies and we really enjoyed that. But, we had several parties on the side. What parties they were!

Oh! what a mix up we had in the seventh grade. We changed classes just like the big kids and the building seemed so large. We'll never forget Mr. Ellis standing in the hall yelling "Get a move on!" What problem children we seemed to be. We had no parties, no games, just plain school. We were too young to attend the high school dances.

We were right in step with changing classes by the time we reached eighth grade. We combined with seventh grade and had our first dance. We were all excited because it was our first real dance.

Now, we felt proud; after all we were in high school. Our freshman year and it sounded so wonderful to us. One boy in our class wasn't so happy, for he was home with pneumonia for three months. We were now eligible to take part in all school dances and many of us took advantage. This was a big year, the boys join Hi-Y and the Latin students join Latin Club. Because of the new students coming in from outside schools, more than doubling our class, we made many new friends. By the tenth grade we were well acquainted with everyone. The girls join Y-Teens this year. They were not allowed to have informal initiation so they made us wash dishes after every party. We started having bake sales and sponsoring dances to make money for our Junior-Senior Prom in our junior year.

The class worked and planned very hard with Mrs. Patterson in preparation for our banquet and prom. We shall never forget her hard work and patience and we appreciated it.

Our senior year was also a very busy one. We got our name cards and pictures. It seemed funny that we were passing them out. We just didn't realize this was our last year. We published our annual. It might be hard for Mrs. Burkhart to believe, but we really and truly do appreciate the hard work. It would have been impossible to publish the annual without her guidance. We also will remember Mr. Campbell for his little bits of advice.

Hence we are at the climax of our high school life. Some will go on to school, others will be working. Someday we hope to meet again, but we will always have our most cherished memories.

SENIOR PLAYS

1st row, F. Taylor, J. Arnold, A. Clark, Z. Heavner, R. Franks,
2nd row, B. Gibbons, I. Zitko, P. Patterson, R. Croak, 3rd row,
B. Finnical, N. Williams, D. Roth, E. Durbin, B. Barker

We had 3 one-act plays, His First Shave, High Window, and Sparkin'. Everyone's part seemed exactly to him or her, so the plays were very successful. The seniors and their advisor, Miss McCutcheon, can honestly feel proud of themselves.

OFF A PEWTER PLATTER

CLASS OF '50

This was a true to life play of an old maid aunt, who was jealous of her nephew, Davie, and niece, Debbie, who were twins. She had always wanted a daughter and when Debbie was born she took it upon herself to be her mother. She showered Debbie with all the love and adoration she had, but she left Davie out in the cold.

There were many upsets in this fast moving story. The maid, Aggie, was always entering contests and winning, too. The whole family excepting Aunt Isabel, was contest crazy, also. When the play nears the end, she even converts and joins the rest in the contest crave.

The theme to this play was; It's better to be raised on a 'pewter platter' than with a silver spoon in your mouth.

The GOSSIP COLUMN

September is here, It looks as though we're back to the old grind. At 1:00 P. M. the students filed into the auditorium, and were greeted by our superintendent and principal who gave us instructions as to where our classes would be, oh well, only 179 days left to go to school.

Say, girls, did you see what the wind blew in! We have two new bachelor coaches, Don Jerry and Ramon Mears. Also on our bachelor list, we have a new science teacher, Marvin Sexton.

The Senior girls are really thrilled; something new has been added to the class, a new senior boy, Frank Taylor from Minerva.

Big commotion in the school; a poor little cat was killed. Did the biology students find what they were looking for?

Two weeks of school gone already. Fair days are here; no school Friday, Hooray!

September 16-Our first football game was played at home against Mount Pleasant. We won 20-7.

One of our Senior girls has become engaged. She is Clara Bigger.

September 23-Another home game, with Midvale this time. We did it again, we won 38-0

Yi-i-i. The snakes from the biology room are loose.

Poor Laura Johnson is always weighted down with books. We wonder if she ever gets tired carrying so many books.

September 30-We went to Carrollton only to get beat 20-13. Tough break.

The place is beginning to liik natural; books, pencils, and papers scattered everywhere.

Election day. Bill Finnical is elected president of the Senior class.

September is over, My how the time goes by.

October is here and is well under way, with Audrey Bates still trying to find a way to the Smithfield games. Could it be that Jim George plays on the team? Could be!

October 7-We played Barnesville here and won 12-7. Rough game.

The Y-Teens held two initiations this month, one informal and one formal. Everyone looked might pretty.

Doesn't Troy Mills and Gaylord Swelbar know that school doesn't let out till 12:00 noon?

October 14-Game at Uhrichsville. Football boys had to wear white shirts and ties. Very nice looking. We lost by one point. 13-12. Tough break.

Election for pigskin queen and her attendents. Everyone curious as usual.

Play tryouts for seniors. My, the seniors are awfully busy this year. They are having three-one act plays. "Sparkin", "His First Shave", and "High Window."

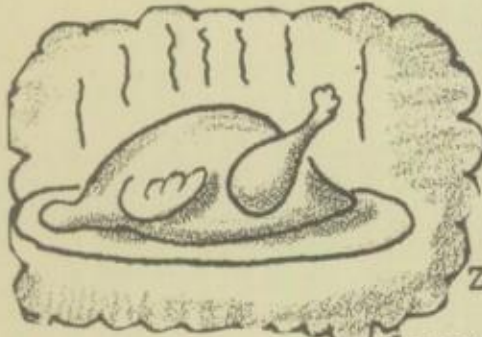

Janet Arnold is always waiting for the weekends to come, when Bob Coulson comes home from college.

October 21-Game here with Dillonvale. We won 19-6. It was our Homecoming game. The queen, Bertha Gibbons, senior, with her attendants Pat Patterson, senior, and Marilyn Coulson, junior, were crowned. The Y-Teens had a dance after the game. Everyone was invited. Good crowd.

Another short week. No school this Friday-teachers' meeting.

October 28-We went to Dennison and won 24-12. Good game.

What happened to the path Ray Dodds was beating over to New Athens to see a certain girl?

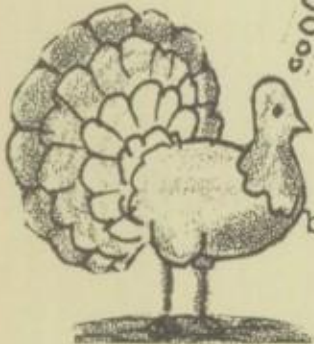

November came in with a snowy day. Our first snow. It it ever cold out!

November 4-Our last away game. We went to Newcomerstown only to get beat 20-7.

What's happening, another senior is engaged. This time it is Zelda Heavner.

November 11-It's the big game of the year. We played Adena home and won 26-12. Best game of the season.

There are quite a few students who would like to be as smart as Helen Abbott.

The halls had a sweet aroma. They're cooking turkey for the football banquet.

Poor Jack Rogers is having a time getting the seniors to order their name cards.

November 18-Senior class play. Everyone was nervous and excited, even more so was our advisor, Miss McCutcheon.

Lois Carter surely has a hard time keeping track of her glasses. Last thing I heard they were up at the Co-op.

Annuals go on sale, "Anyone wanna buy one?"

Raetta Croak is having a hard time getting the students to turn in pictures for the annual.

November 23-School out at 2:30 P. M. Wednesday; no school till Monday. Thanksgiving vacation.

Clarence Christian and Benny Ramsay sit in the first two seats in law class, so they can make a fast getaway, in cas Mr. Ellis decides to spring on a last minute test.

Pictures taken for the annual. Look pretty!

Seniors got their name cards. Big thrill.

Emma Rudolph makes her daily trips to school every 4th and 6th period. Lucky girl. That's all she has to come. .

Big commotion at school, three boys run away, but like the cat they came back.

How would the Senior girls pass Math. if it wasn't for Bob Barker and his good grades.

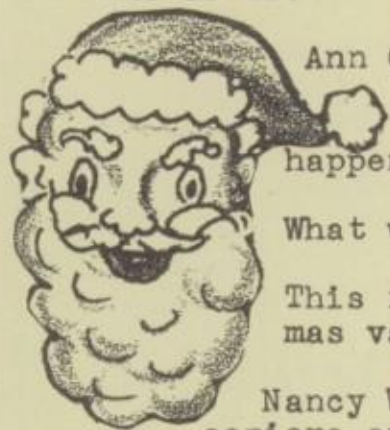

December 9-Basketball season is here and we opened with a bang. We beat Mount Pleasant 49-39.

Susie Tubaugh always asks her daily question in Government class.

December 13-Bowerston came over to play on our floor. We won 59-19. Good game.

Bob Davia catches up on his forty winks in Math. class every day.

December 16-Newcomerstown came to visit us, and went home happy. They beat us 46-42.

Ann Clark comes in with a bang every morning. Sleep late again, Ann?

December 20-Uhrichsville played on our floor and beat us. What's happening, we're starting to lose instead of win.

What would the seniors do without Eddie Durbin's ability to draw?

This is an exciting week. School's out at 2:30 P. M. Thursday for Christmas vacation. No more school until next year.

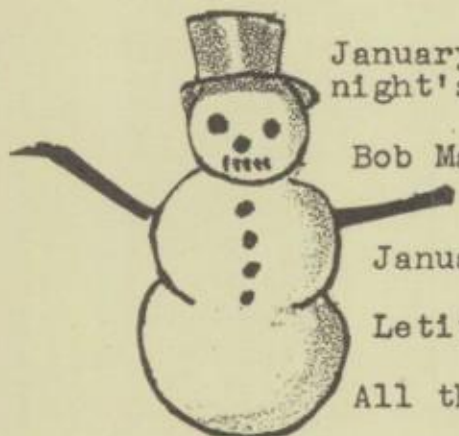

Nancy Williams is having a hard time writing the class prophecy. The seniors are so changeable.

Well, 1950 came in with a bang, and we're back to the old grind. Only five months left to go.

All the girls are raving about Bill Farms' blond hair. (swoon)

January 6-We went down to Adena and came back with long faces. They beat us.

Is Jo Ann Merryman still going with that boy from Hopedale? We wondered why she liked Hopedale so well.

January 7-We went to Mount Pleasant to win. Somewhat better than last night's game.

Bob Mallernee makes his weekly Saturday night trips down to Georgetown, to see a certain Sophomore girl.

January 10-Scio came here and beat us 55-50. Good game anyhow.

Letitia Brooks is always worrying about the time in Government class.

All the students are worried. EXAMS! We hope everyone passes.

January 13-Barnsville played here and we won 46-42.

We wonder if Bob McKinney knows how to handle the drunks from the Mary Ellen while driving a taxi.

Exams are over; how did everyone make out? Okay, we hope.

January 17-We went to Uhrichsville only to get beat 45-42. Tough break.

We also wonder why Irene Zitko likes Smithfield. Could it be that's where certain boy lives?

January 20-Dillonvale came up here and beat us 50-31. What a game!

James Johnson is the speed demon in the class of '50. Of course we meant in running.

January 24-We went to Freeport and won 49-39. Good game.

Seeing that this is "Becky" Franks' last year of school, she arrives every morning about 8:10 A. M. I bet she will miss good old C. H. S.

January 27-We went to Dennison, only to get beat 67-45. Too bad.

We often wonder if George Monzula makes it home in time for supper, after walking a certain junior girl home.

January 31-We went to Dillonvale and got beat 43-37.

Tommy Tedrow makes it his daily habit to pester the girls in 2nd period study hall.

February came in rather cold. The trees and ground are covered with snow.

February 2-Ground hog day. Hope the ground hog doesn't see his shadow.

Ann Jones makes her daily trip to the band room the 4th period to play her clarinet.

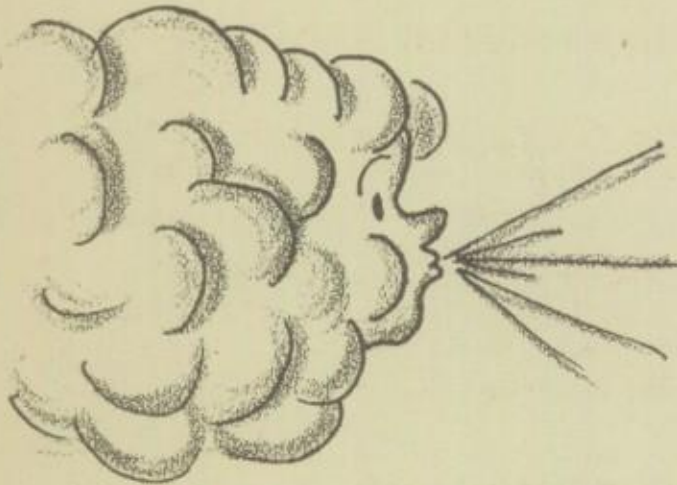

February 11-Y-Teens had a valentines dance with Bob Myers and his orchestra. Several different schools were invited.

How does Jackie Sullivan get away with telling the teachers off everyday?

February 14-Valentines Day-Hope you all get a valentine.

February 22-George Washington's Birthday-No school!

Louise Reed makes her daily trips down to cafeteria to serve the little children.

March came in with a windy day. Well, looks like it will go out like a lamb.

March 17-St. Patrick's Day. Did everyone wear green?

Don Roth is the senior Bing Crosby.

March 20-Our first day of spring. School is getting near the end.

Ida Strother certainly is rushed every after noon, so she can make it home and back to school before the bell rings. Poor girl!

March 24-Junior class play. Juniors are the ones that are nervous now.

We wondered why they called Archie Jackson "Cowboy", until we saw his cowboy boots. Now we know.

April came in with showers, and the flowers are starting to bloom spring is here.

April 6-School out at 2:30 P. M. Easter vacation. No school until the eleventh.

All the salesmanship students have an advantage over Marshel Smith, as he sits right in front of Mr. Ellis.

April 9-Easter-Put on your Easter bonnet with all the frills upon it.

May came in bright and sunny. Not much longer for the seniors. Lucky seniors.

Verner McKibben makes his daily trip at 3:55 P. M. to watch the grade school children across the street.

May 5-Junior-Senior prom.

Ronny Van Curen still doesn't know whether he'll get a C. P. diploma, or a general diploma. He'll know in a few days more.

May 12-Senio Breakfast and Senior Chapel.

May 14- Baccalaureate services held at the Presbyterian Church.

May 19-Commencement night, thus ending 12 short years of school. We surely will miss C. H. S. But good luck to everyone, and hope you can graduate, too.

Have a nice vacation!

PROPHECY

One afternoon, Madam Zagatansky sat looking discontentedly out the window. Business was bad. There had been no customers in her House of Fortune for many days. "I'd better keep in practice," she thought to herself. So she proceeded to get her dusty crystal ball from the shelf. "But whose future shall I foretell? How about the graduating class of Cadiz High School--the class of 1950?" As she gazes into her crystal, she sees the rosy future of this unusual class.

Her vision clears and she sees Raetta Croak firmly established in Hollywood as one of MGM's top stars. Raetta has filled the shoes and the stockings of the one-time famous Betty Grable. Lois Carter was there also. Lois and Frank Taylor, both comedians, are working as a team. Their motto is "Here's a Taylor that will leave you in stitches, so you really need Carter's Little Laff Pills."

The scene shifted eastward and the Madame saw Ray Dodds, with his wife Audrey, living in Utah. They're Morons, you know.

In Wyoming, she saw Ann Clark running a dude ranch and still looking for that handsome cowboy. By means of the crystal ball, Madame Zagatansky saw the performance of Ida Strothers, the noted pianist, who is on a tour of the West.

In Chicago, George Monzula is wrestling at the Rainbow Gardens. He has become known to sport fans everywhere as "Gorgeous George, 11." Marshal Smith is his business manager. Archie Jackson is his trainer. Janet Arnold is in Chicago, too, as the wife of a promising young doctor, who is practicing medicine. Why is it they always speak of a doctor as just practicing?

Bill Farms and Bill Finnical, as advisors, are exploring the Arctic with a group of little Boy Scouts.

Bob Mallernee is playing the drums with the popular dance band, the Rhythmless Racketmakers. Don Roth and Susie Tubaugh are the vocalists with the same band.

Louise Reed is the official food-taster at H. J. Heinz'. She has tasted all 57 varieties.

Irene Zitko and Bertha Gibbons are living together at the Fairfax Hotel for Career Women in New York City. Irene writes the 'Heart Throbs' column in Secret Loves Magazine. Most of her mail comes from Becky Franks, who is having trouble with Bob McKinney. Bob seems to be going around with more women than a revolving door at Macy's. Bertha is the owner of the exclusive Modiste Lingerie Shoppe on Fifth Avenue.

Not all of the feminine half of the class of '50 turned out to be old maids, though! Clara Bigger, Zelda Heavner, Jo Ann Merryman, Laura Johnson, and Letitia Brooks are married and living happily even after.

Senator Robert Barker of Ohio has just led the longest filibuster in history concerning labor relations. Robert L. Davia is the tyrannical labor leader of the day. His power excels that of John L. Lewis.

Ely O'Bradovich and Thomas Tedrow have recently been appointed co-chairmen of the Atomic Rocket Commission.

According to all the pupils at Arthur Murray's Studio, Jim Johnson is their is their favorite rhumba instructor.

Eddie Durbin is well known for his clever (?) illustrations which are published monthly in Esquire.

Emma Rudolph is teaching elementary classes in Cadiz Grade School.

Jack Rogers is a veterinarian, of course. He raises dachshunds on the side. Beside the usual sign "Dr. J. M. Rogers, D.V.M.", there is another which reads, "Git a Long Little Doggy."

Verner McKibben is the architect who designed the new Cadiz High School building. Troy Mills invented the 'Miracle Bricklayer' which will be used for the first time on this building. It works completely by remote control.

John L. Sullivan is on tour, telling of his experiences in the savage Eupatus, a recently discovered land north of the North Pole.

Ronny Van Curen has a diaper service for the convenience of busy mothers. His own family, though, is his best customer. The slogan on the side of his truck reads "Rock a Dry Baby."

Clarence Christian and Benny Ramsay have a fast-growing mink farm which is doing quite well. The old spoilbanks seem to be just the right environment for young minks.

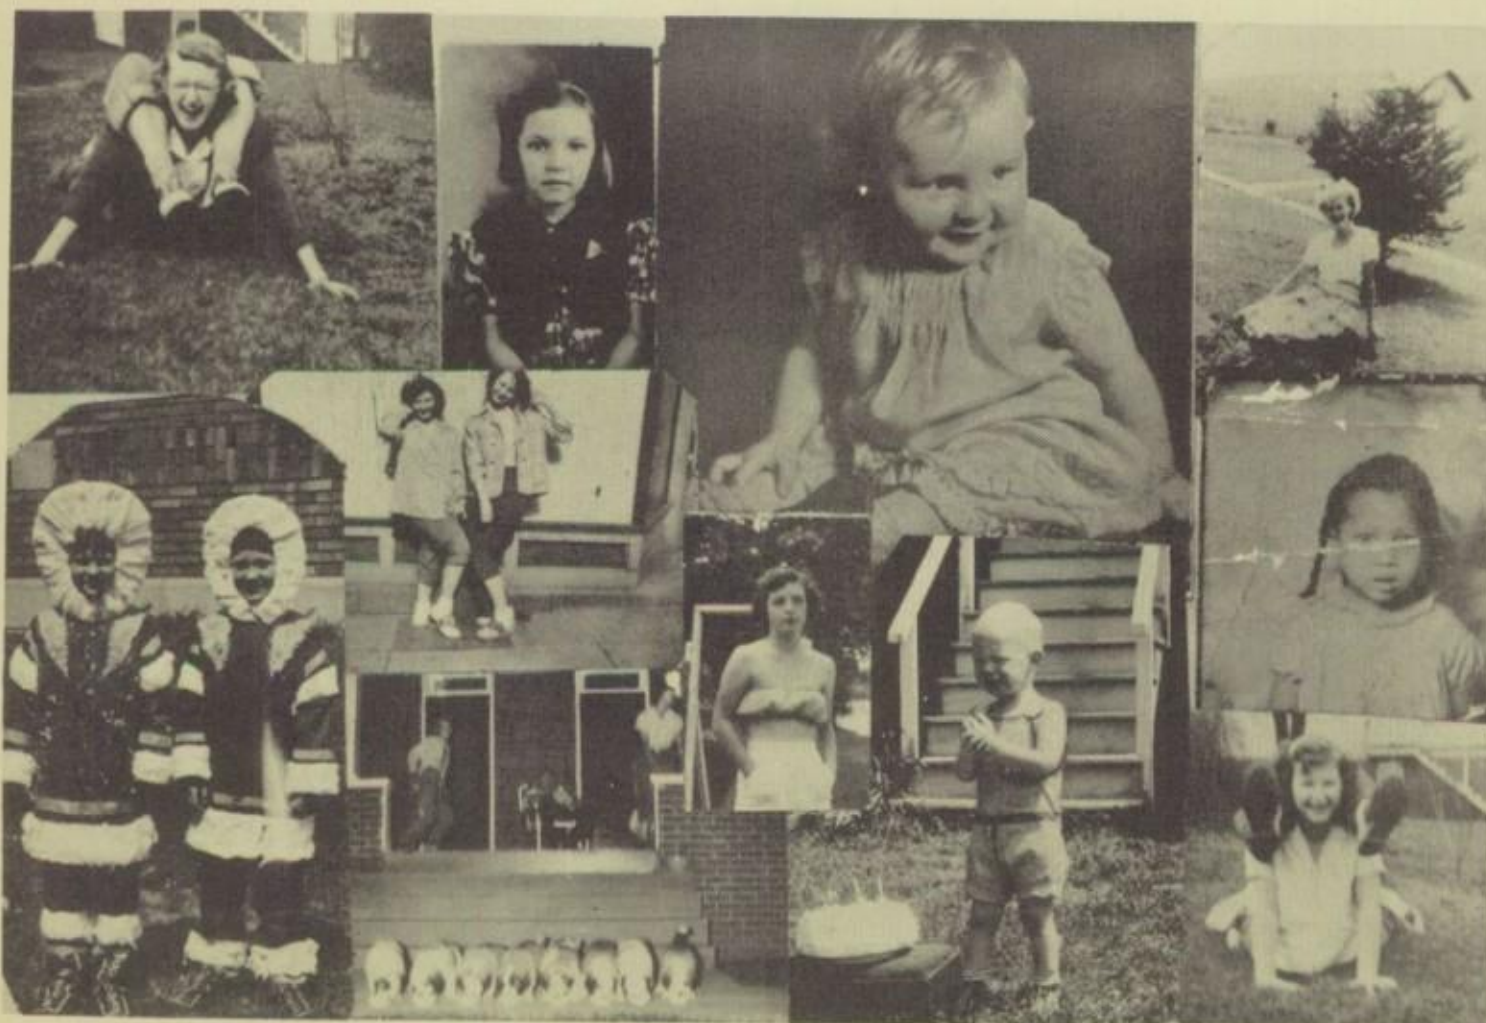

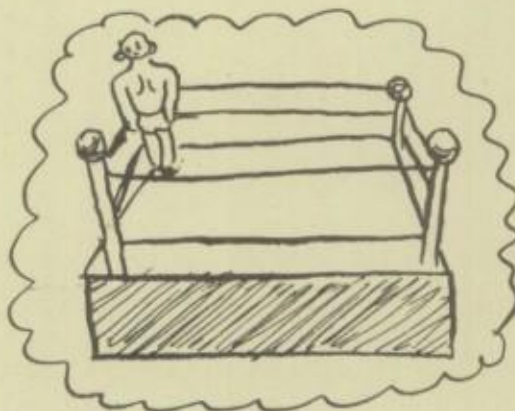

Ann Jones is a pharmacist. She runs her own drug store--The Jones Cut-Throat, Come In If You Dare.

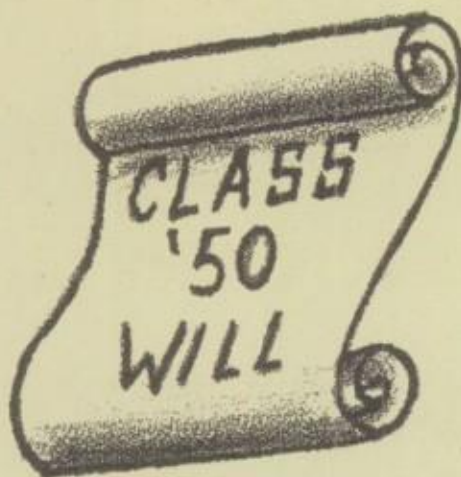

Gaylord Swelbar has a showboat on the Mississippi, that has the look of the old south.

Patsy Patterson is the new girls gym instructor for Cadiz High School. They finally got one!

Nancy Williams just turned down the offer for presidency because she wouldn't tell her age.

Then suddenly Madame Zagatansky's crystal ball became clouded by an ominous black.

The time has come for the present senior class to depart from this way of life and enter into new fields. We are not certain what the future holds for us; therefore, our formal will is stated below.

We the senior class of Cadiz High School, City of Cadiz, County of Harrison, State of Ohio, being of sane mind, and sound memory, and good sense and habits, do hereby draw up this, our last will and testament, in the presence of our honorable superintendent, Mr. Raver, and principal, Mr. Ellis, on this the 12 day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty.

To the Juniors we bequeath our most cherished possession, our name, "Seniors."

Clara Bigger leaves her most hated middle name to Cornell Belle Porter.

Jackie Sullivan leaves his ability to copy Commercial Law answers to Jim Coffman.

Raetta Croak leaves her blond hair to Marilyn Coulson.

Bill Finnical, Bob McKinney and Vernor McKibben leave their height to Don Evans, George Arris, and Art Barkhurst, who certainly need it.

Helen Abbott leaves her place in the senior class to Mary and Jack Reed.

Clara Bigger leaves her quiet ways in French Class to Evelyn McDevitt and Pat Ferrell.

Bill Farms leaves his interest in Marilyn Mattern to Kendall Lewis, good luck Kendall.

Zelda Heavner leaves her ability to go steady with one guy to Jane Croskey.

Bertha Gibbons leaves her shyness to Lois Reed.

Archie Jackson leaves his cowboy boots in partnership to Dick Jones and Charles Ash.

Bob Barker leaves his frequent trips to Hopedale and his "toni" to Don Barnhart.

Ray Dodds leaves his ability to handle women to his little brother Don.

Bob Mallernee leaves the tools for his 37 Chevy to Gerald Klee.

Bob Davia leaves his love for Georgetown to Don Bizic.

Troy Mills leaves his ability to play blackjack to Don O'Bradovich.

Gaylord Swelbar leaves his last minute cigarette to George Brown.

Ed Durbin leaves his little mustache to John Hanna.

Janet Arnold leaves her love for college men to Annie Fryer.

The senior class's Andrew Sisters, Letitia Brooks, Emma Rudolph, and Ida Strothers leave their singing ability to Betty Banks, Louine West, and Viola West.

Ann Jones bequeaths her ability to play basketball to Mike Liles and Charles Hazelrigg.

Frank Taylor leaves his funny sort of ways to Vernon Ickes and Arthur Cline.

Laura Johnson leaves her love for the country life to Veda Johnson and Mary Hennen.

Jo Ann Merryman leaves her love for kids of other schools to Ely O'Bradovich and Jo Anne Spurrier.

Patsy Patterson and Jack Rogers bequeath their red hair and freckles to Jack Giacobbi and Joan Edgar.

Ronny VanCuren bequeaths his looks to Fred Emert.

Lois Carter bequeaths her ability to keep her temper controlled at Y-Teen meeting to Nancy Rowland.

Nancy Williams leaves her speedy ways to Grace Fleming.

Ann Clark leaves her ability to get to school when classes are changing to Martha McFarlan.

Clarence Christian leaves the second seat in Law class, where it is impossible to copy answers, to Ed Jones.

Rebecca Franks leaves her acting ability to Martha Blake.

George Monzula bequeaths his love for red heads to Dale Lewis.

Benny Ramsey leaves his Sunday morning paper route to James McConnell.

Louise Reed bequeaths the work book to her favorite subject, government, to Pearl Richards.

Don Roth, the senior's Bing Crosby, bequeaths his voice to Charles Wells.

Marshel Smith leaves his wad of gum on the second table in Big study hall to any Junior who can get it.

Tom Tedrow wills his funny laugh to Don Kelly.

Susie Tubaugh leaves her girlish ways to Marlene Tweedy.

Irene Zitko leaves her ability to get newsy tid bits to Joan Terry.

Gaylord Swelbar leaves his 1900 Cadillac to David Bernard.

Raetta Croak leaves her ability to stick to one guy to Arlene Gregg.

Eddie Durbin leaves his big appetite to Lee Liming, who certainly doesn't need it.

The Cheerleaders elect Evert Nichols as "Mule Train" driver of the years 1950 and 51.

Zelda Heavner leaves her love for French to Kenneth Bland.

Bob Barker leaves his eye for basketball to Leota Smalley.

George Monzula leaves his path to the Coulson residence to Ray Hildreth.

Frank Taylor leaves his basketball uniform to David Mizer.

Susie Tubaugh leaves her love for bright clothes to Lois Hines.

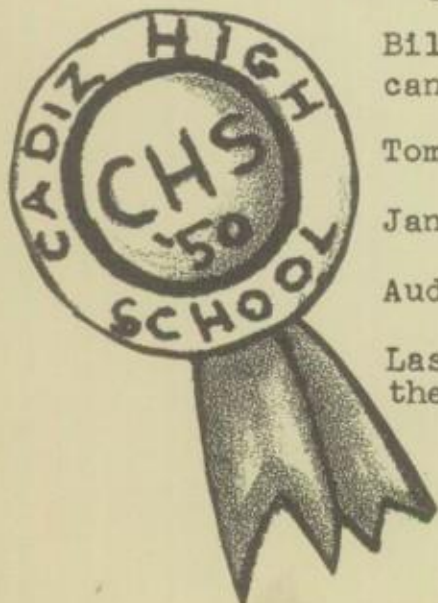

Bill Finnical leaves his football shoes to Bob Harden; here's hoping you can fill them out Bob.

Tom Tedrow leaves his place on the honor roll to Charles Carter.

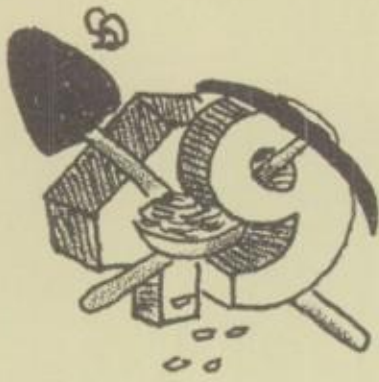

Janet Arnold bequeaths the poem "And So Did I" to Jim Coffman.

Audrey Bates bequeaths her love for the last name George, to Bob George.

Last but not least we bequeath to the teachers the greatest pleasure they've had in twelve years, getting rid of us.

CHEER LEADERS

Cornell Porter,
Bertha Gibbons,
Lois Reed,
Audrey Bates

The Cheerleaders of 49-50 were off to a good start. They had different uniforms; two were blue and white and the other two were red and white.

They did a very good job with all their ups and downs. We of Cadiz High School say "thank you, Cheerleaders."

VARSITY

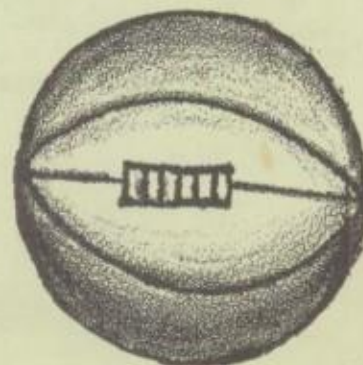

1st row, J. Bertz, G. Brown, C. Hazelrigg, Coach Mears, D. Mason, J. Johnson, 2nd row, L. Willis, B. Finnical, F. Taylor, B. Farms, M. Liles.

Under the leadership of Coach Ray Mears, the Cadiz high varsity is trying desperately to secure the Eastern Ohio League cup. Everynight at 4:00, we can find the boys working together to better our ball club. It seems the boys play up and down ball. One week they look like Cadiz, next time they just can't seem to get going. What ever they do now is beside the point, but we all realize they will end up right in the tournaments.

RESERVES

The Cadiz high reserves have not won too many games, but they have been doing very well considering their lack of experience.

Coach Don Jerry has been working with them each morning before school starts, and we do appreciate his and their untiring efforts. The squad is composed of Don Barnhart, Jack Barnhart, Charles Hazelrigg, Tom Mills, Dave Mizer, Ken Mallernee, Johnny Melchiori, Forstt Thaxton, Art Barkhurst, Kenneth Bland, David Reed and Delbert Mason.

FOOTBALL

1st row, J. Coffman, D. Jamison, J. Giacobbi, C. Hazelrigg, S. West, B. Finnical, D. Mason, 2nd row, D. Mizer, A. Jackson, M. Liles, B. Farms, J. Johnson.

The football team of 1949 started to practice on August the twentieth. It was very hot but we managed through for two weeks. The team worked very hard. After the two weeks of hard practicing we played our first game on September 16 with Mt. Pleasant; we won it 19-6. The next week we played Midvale 38-0. Carrollton defeated us 20-7 but the following week we defeated Barnesville 12-7; it was rough. We lost to Uhrichsville 13-12; it was a tough one to lose. but nevertheless we came back to win from Dillonvale 19-6. Dennison lost to us 24-12. The following week we played the Mighty Trojan of New Amsterdam and lost 20-7. Last, but the best, was the great game, Cadiz vs. Adena. Cadiz won 24-13. Members of the team who were lettermen were: Seniors; Captain Archie Jackson, Vill Farms, Bill Finnical, James Johnson, Jack Rogers, Bob Davia. Juniors; Mike Liles, Jack Giacobbi, James Coffman, Dave Jamison, Dick Jones, Kendal Lewis, Dale Lewis, Charles Hazelrigg, Bob Hardin, Dave Mizer. Sophomores; Jim Bertz, Bill Rudolph, Delbert Mason, Sam West, Bob Reed.
